COUNTRY  Military Information from Doeberits  EVALUATION  PLACE ORTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  A ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  5 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  5 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES  A ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES  A ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  PAGES  4 ENCLOSURES  PAGES  PAGES  1 ENCLOSURES  PAGES  1 ENCL		Approved For Release CLASSIFICATION.	71	P80-006 10A00320	03000 10-2470
PAGES 4 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)  1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 -23/85 tanks. Fetween 26 and 29 October, about 250 troops with baggage were seen narching to the Bellgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black opaulets and carrying barrage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A nextly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottons.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers let 1 these larger and marched to the Soviet cametery near Deligow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blackes were entireined in 7 converted boxears at the Deligow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blackets were entireined in 7 converted boxears at the Deligow railroad station. At 1.15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxears escreted by detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Deligow railroad station and, at a but 9 p.D. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered coulets.	COUNTRY		The Street of the Control of the Con
PLACE ORTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OF CONTENT  1. On 29 October 1953, the Loswan Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 7-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 7-34/85 tanks. Petween 26 and 29 October about 280 troops with baggage were seen leaving the Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 7-34/85 tanks. Petween 26 and 29 October about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dailgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black spaulets and carrying baryang arrived at the Loswen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  October, 30 the 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes lager and merched to the Soviet cametery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a ship rent of about 14 converted boxcars encorred by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at about 9 p.D. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered on a bott 9 p.D. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered on the station on 7 november, a ship rent of about 14 converted boxcars encorred by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at about 9 p.D. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered excellence.		Military Information fr	om Doeberitz	REPURT NUL
DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 4 December 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 4 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type)  1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia, on 28 October, T-34 tanks   were seen leaving the installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. Petween 25 and 29 October, about 280 troops with beggage were seen narching to the Daligow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military hand of about 30 soldiers left altee Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Deligow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow vaniroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 2 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets	TOPIC.	6. COM-COMMAND STATE COMMAND C	Andrew Will find a read information and administration are not uniquested.	W Midden and the state of the s	and an extension of the contract of the contra
DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 4 December 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 4 ENCLOSURES (No. a Type)  1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia, on 28 October, T-34 tanks   were seen leaving the installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. Petween 25 and 29 October, about 280 troops with beggage were seen narching to the Daligow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military hand of about 30 soldiers left altee Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Deligow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow vaniroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 2 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bott 200 troops wearing red-bordered evalets	 1	And the second s	Piperrali des Ann er desemblisk filmligt desemblisk ser en mellieten desemblisk		7
DATE OF CONTENT  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED 4. December 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 4. ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE)  REMARKS  1. On 29 October 1953, the Loswen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 7-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 7-34/35 tanks. Letween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen narching to the ballgow-boeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loswen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had one from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altee Lagar and marched to the Soviet censtery near Bellgow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Ballgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars essorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Ballgow railroad station and, at a but 9 p.m. on 13 November, a both reference and beauting a babut 9 p.m. on 13 Novembers.	EVALUATION. 1		PLACE ORTAINED
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doebaritz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tanks hedds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. The tween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen nearching to the Deligov-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet camstery near Deligow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Ballgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Ballgow reilroad station and, at a bott 9 p.m. on 13 November, a shiprent of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encellets	DATE OF CO				Olipainustassillisuskannaks namuskanskill (SMISS) – de 15 SAN Johnstoffen, vilje vil viljenskannak	-
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doebaritz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tanks hedds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. The tween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen nearching to the Deligov-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet camstery near Deligow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Ballgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Ballgow reilroad station and, at a bott 9 p.m. on 13 November, a shiprent of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encellets	DATE OBTAIN	ED.	DATE PRE	PARED 4 December	er 1953
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, 7-34 tanks were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. Eetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty. 2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet centery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chausese.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxears at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shirtent of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at a bout 9 p.m. on 13 November as shirtent of about 200 troops wearing red-bordered ensulets about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered ensulets
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loawen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, 7-34 tanks were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Hetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen leaving the installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Hetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Losuen Kaserne, A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottous.  Octobus.  Troops observed engaged in fatigue duty. 2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow was Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shirment of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 pm. on 13 November as about 200 troops wearing red-bordered ensulets.	PAGES	ENCLOSURES (No. 8	Ł TYPE)		The contractive in a collaboration in
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loswen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 1-34 tanks were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks. Estueen 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Bellgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loswen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemstery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow reilroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipent of about 14 converted boxcars escreted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 250 troops wearing red-bordered enouglets about 9 p.m. on 13 November about 20 troops wearing red-bordered and at a bout 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 20 troops wearing red-bordered enouglets	REMARKS
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 7-34, tanks  Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks.  Eetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars corrected by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped executes even the paulets about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped e
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 7-34, tanks  Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks.  Eetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars corrected by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped executes even the paulets about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped e					en de la companya de La companya de la companya del companya de la companya del companya de la companya del la companya de la	-
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillary insignia. On 28 October, 7-34, tanks  Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks.  Eetween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chausee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars corrected by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped executes even the paulets about 9 p.m. on 13 November, a bout 200 troops wearing red-bordered enveloped e	1		Andrews are consequently recommend to an agency.		The state of the s	*******
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Etween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered epulets.	1				·
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Etween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered epulets.
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Etween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered epulets.
1. On 29 October 1953, the Loewen Kaserne and the Adler Kaserne, Doeberitz, were lightly occupied by a total of about 600 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/35 tanks. Etween 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying bargage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  2  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered epulets.	1
black epaulets, including some with tank and artillery insignia. On 28 October, T-34 tanks were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks.  Between 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed engaged in fatigue duty.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station.  At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered required engaged.		On 29 October 1953, the	Inches Vaccours		.
October, T-34 tanks October, T-34 tanks October, T-34 tanks Installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks.  Between 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Losuen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  Observed eligaged in fatigue duty.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station.  At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enablets		MOTO TIME OCCUPTED DA	A COTAL OT A MOIN	than the and the installation. Two tank sheds were occupied to capacity by 25 T-34/85 tanks.  Between 26 and 29 October, about 280 troops with baggage were seen marching to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loewen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at a bout 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enablets.		orack epaurers, including	g some with tank	and artillery i	nsignia. On 28
to the Dallgow-Doeberitz railroad station. On 27 October, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage arrived at the Loswen Kaserne. A newly arrived soldier stated that the unit had come from Cottbus.  3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered ensulets		installation. Two tank s	heds were occupie	wi to commedian b	- or moulders in a	l '
3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shiprent of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enculets		renmean to mid the Octobe	r. about 280 troc	and a stith had a concern	terms as a sum and a feet and a
3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cametery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets.	1	Meet TITE Lega DOLGELED DIV	CK eDaulets and d	anguad partyria	annimad at the
3. At about 11:45 a.r. on 7 November, about 1,000 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, carrying a wreath and preceded by a military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered ensulets	1	Cottbus.	arrived soldier s	tated that the	unit had come from military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets	·	observed engaged in fati	gue duty. 2		noops
military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets
military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets
military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets	1
military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets	•
military band of about 30 soldiers left Altes Lager and marched to the Soviet cemetery near Dallgow via Hamburger Chaussee.  4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered encylets	- 3.	At about 11:45 a.r. on 7	November, about	1.000 troops we	aning red-bondoned	_
4. At about 6 p.m. on 4 November, about 150 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and rolled blankets were entrained in 7 converted boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station. At 1:15 a.m. on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enculets	-	orack epanters with fank	insignia, carrvi	no a wreath and	preceded by a
on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enculets		Soviet cemetery near Dall	lgow via Hamburge	ltes Lager and r r Chaussee,	marched to the
on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered enculets	4.	At about 6 p.m. on 4 Nove	mber, about 150	troops wearing :	red-bordered on 7 November, a shipment of about 14 converted boxcars escorted by a detail of about 10 troops arrived at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered engages.		black epaulets and carry	ing baggage and r	olled blankets t	vere entrained in about 9 p.m. on 13 November, about 200 troops wearing red-bordered engulets		on 7 November, a shipment	of about 14 con	verted boxcars of	scorted by a	2 and carrying baggage were entrained in 7 converted boxcars. 2		detail of about 10 troops	arrived at the	Dallgow railroad	station and at and carrying baggage were	entrained in 7	converted boxcar	s. 2
				•

7		SECRET,
5. Troop trains observed at the Dallgow railroad station included:  31 October. A 122-mm field howdzer, which was towed away by truck and 2 x 57-mm AT gums were unloaded from a train which had arrived from the direction of Justerbog-Albes Lager.  1 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars which, on 29 October, had left toward Himmelpfort, arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg.  About 150 unarmed roops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4. November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Bosbertiz through the fields.  7. November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar leaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  9. November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  20. On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow reliroad station and, at about 5130 pm. w
21 October. A 122-mm field howitzer, which was towed away by truck and 2 x 57-mm AT guns were unloaded from a train which had arrived from the direction of Jueterbog-Altes Lager.  1 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars which, on 29 October, had left toward Himmelpfort, arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg.  About 150 unarmed proops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying beggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 Mf strived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4 November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and eacorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort  4 November. Toward the direction of Frankfur/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  2 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  9 November, about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November, about 20 troops are loaded on 18 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November. Shout 400		- 2 -
21 October. A 122-mm field howitzer, which was towed away by truck and 2 x 57-mm AT guns were unloaded from a train which had arrived from the direction of Jueterbog-Altes Lager.  1 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars which, on 29 October, had left toward Himmelpfort, arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg.  About 150 unarmed proops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying beggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 Mf strived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4 November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and eacorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort  4 November. Toward the direction of Frankfur/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  2 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  9 November, about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November, about 20 troops are loaded on 18 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November. Shout 400
21 October. A 122-mm field howitzer, which was towed away by truck and 2 x 57-mm AT guns were unloaded from a train which had arrived from the direction of Jueterbog-Altes Lager.  1 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars which, on 29 October, had left toward Himmelpfort, arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg.  About 150 unarmed proops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying beggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 Mf strived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4 November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and eacorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort  4 November. Toward the direction of Frankfur/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  2 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  9 November, about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November, about 20 troops are loaded on 18 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 November. Shout 400	5.	Troop trains observed at the Dallgow railroad station included:
arrived from the direction of Jueterbog-Altes Lager.  1 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxnars which, on 29 October, had left toward Hirmelifort, arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg.  About 150 unarmed croops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelifort, were entrained and left toward Himmelifort.  3. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelifort.  4. November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and. escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelifort about 400 troops in 7 converted boxcars had arrived at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7. November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelifort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying beggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Himmelifort under shuttle train  9. November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelifort.  10. November. About 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelifort.  2 On 7 November, about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelifort.  2 On 7 November, about 20 troops arriving beggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive.  2 In Altes Lager  Sentrie
About 150 unarmed from wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4. November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and. escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort.  4. November. A bout 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and. escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort.  4. November. A shipment of 17 converted at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7. November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black enaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying baggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort under shuttle train  9. November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10. November. about 20 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort, about 20 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2		and 2 x 57-mm AT guns were unloaded from a train which had baggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort.  2. November. A shipment of 8 converted boxcars escorted by 1 officer and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4. November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort 400 troops in 7 converted boxcars had arrived at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7. November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black enaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  B November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  9 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  6. On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2 and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward Himmelpfort.  4 November. About 400 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and. escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort.  400 troops in 7 converted boxcars had arrived at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bondered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying baggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort under shuttle train  9 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 On 7 November, about 200 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2		baggage and escorted by the same officer which had been observed with the preceding shipments toward Himmelpfort, were entrained and left toward carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort  400 troops in 7 converted boxcars had arrived at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left toward Doeberitz through the fields.  7 November. A shipment of 17 converted boxcars, escorted by a detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying baggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort under shuttle train  9 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort.  2 Con 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2		and 12 EM arrived from the direction of Fuerstenberg. The converted boxcars and the escorting detail were the same which, on 1 November, had left toward wearing red-bordered black enaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  A shipment of 1 boxcar loaded with ration supplies		carrying baggage were entrained in 17 converted boxcars and escorted by the abovementioned detail, left toward Himmelpfort about 400 troops in 7 converted boxcars had arrived at the Wustermark marshaling yard from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder and, after unloading, had left from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. 4About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying baggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Himmelpfort under shuttle train  9 November. Eight converted boxcars arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort. 2  6. On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2  7. In Altes Lager Sentries seen wore		wearing red-pordered black enaulets, arrived from the direction of Himmelpfort.  10 November. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and an escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort. 2  6. On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2  7. In Altes Lager.  Sentries seen wore		from the direction of Fuerstenberg and was unloaded. About 150 unarmed troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, carrying baggage and escorted by a detail of 1 officer and 10 EM were entrained and left toward Hirmelpfort under escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and left toward Himmelpfort. 2  6. On 7 November, about 200 troops, carrying baggage and coming from Altes Lager, were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2  7 were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel locomotive. 2  7		escort party of about 20 troops were loaded on 17 converted boxcars and
7. in Altes Lager. Sentries seen wore	6.	were entrained in 10 to 12 boxcars at the Dallgow railroad station and, at about 5:30 p.m. were towed toward the Marshaling yard by a small Diesel
	7.
reu-bordered minch epatitets.	_	red-bordered black epaulets. Sentries seen wore

SECRET

SECRET,

25X1 25X1 Although the strength figures for the Loewen Kaserne and of paragraph 1 are always below strength Adler Kaserne estimates it is possible that the occupation in the Loewen Kaserne had decreased in late October, as 25X1 25X1 elements of the 19th Mecz Regt left the installation on 26 October and had not yet returned on 28 October. It is, 25X1 however, believed that all troops had returned to their installation by 7 November, the anniversary of the October Revolution. 25X1 Comment. The information on the departure of dischargees and the arrival of recruits continues previous information 25X1 25X1 It could be determined that the assembly and distribution point of the Second Gds Mecz Army, this year, is located in the barracks installation on Castaven Lake near Fuerstenberg, with Himmelpfort as railroad station. 3. 4. 5. 25X1 25X1 25X1 Comment. the restrictions on town leave for officers and EM of the Doeberitz post had been imposed on 9 October 1953. 25X1 Comment. According to weapons observed, the 294th Mort Regt (US) of the 1st Mecz Div can be confirmed in Altes Lager, Doeberitz, until 7 November 1953.

		SECRET
		- 3 -	25X
25X1	8, [	on 6 November, the cantonment at Hasenheidenberg was occupied only by a guard detail wearing red-bordered black epaulets.  Neither weapons nor vehicles were seen in the cantonment area.
25X1		On 6 November, the Adler Kaserne and the Loewen Kaserne were heavily occupied Intensive activity was observed in the barracks area. 1
25X1	10.	On 6 November, all was quiet at the Doeberitz training area. No exercises or firing practices were observed.
	11.	Loadings observed at the Dallgow railroad station included:
		30 October. Twelve tank trucks and about 200 to 220 air force personnel with baggage were loaded on 12 flatcars with sideracks and 10 boxcars. The troops included 40 to 50 troops, who arrived from the direction of Falkensee on 2 trucks, and 60 to 70 troops, who arrived from the direction of Staaken on 3 trucks. The others had come from the direction of Elstal.	•
25X1	. [	4 November. About 400 troops with baggage were loaded on 20 boxcars. Some of the troops had arrived by foot and the others on 16 trucks  from the direction of Altes and Newes Lager.	25X 25X 25X
		A railroadman stated that the troops were shuttled to Frankfurt/Oder. These shuttle trains allegedly returned from the direction of Frankfurt/Oder with new troops in the early morning hours after 2 a.m. A total of more than 1,000 troops had allegedly been shuttled to Dallgow. 2
25X1	12.	In October, construction orders for Altes Lager were issued by the Potsdam komendatura, with each 2 copies being forwarded to the Falkensee special construction bureau.
25X1	13.	Between 15 October and 7 November 1tes Lager was occupied by Unit Vasilyev, and Unit Polishenuk, 5	25X1 25X
	14.	During the period under review, the restrictions on town leave had been partly lifted in Doeberitz. Trained personnel were permitted to leave the installations until 11 p.m.	25X1
	15.	An undetermined number of troops almost daily received instruction on light, medium and heavy mortars in Altes Lager and tanks engaged in driving practice in Neues Lager during the period under review. 7
	16.	On 7 November, about 600 to 800 troops preceded by an about 30-piece military band left Altes Lager to deposit wreaths at the cemetery on

SECRE